

Young show-offs make waves

Budding six-year-old artists (from left) Chung Hiu-ying, Hui Long and Lai Ka-mei pose in front of their painting of a jellyfish at the Children's Creative Arts - Colour Fiesta exhibition, which opened yesterday at the Cultural Centre. The exhibition by children from nine kindergartens operated by Hong Kong Christian Service features 224 artworks and will be open until the end of the month. Photo: Dustin Shum