

BIG SHOTS, LITTLE SHOTS

As part of the Osage Art Foundation's effort to donate digital cameras to the Hong Kong Christian Service (HKCS) nursery schools, Osage Gallery will be hosting this unique charity exhibition of 70 works by some of Hong Kong's youngest up-and-coming artists. The paintings — created by children and depicting scenes and issues from normal life from their perspective — will all be available for sale, with proceeds going to the HKCS Children Arts Development Fund. To May 15
